

My Resume

Oh!

Hi, I'm Hitiksha, a visual communication designer. Well known for my bad jokes and quirky dark humour. I get curious, think optimistic, and work hard. A bigtime bollywood buff with lots of movie reference and songs stuck in my head. Being someone who hates cliffhangers and mysteries, I somehow manage to be patient when I'm onto something. I believe, beauty is in the hands of a designer first and then in the eyes of the beholder because It's our job to make even an unpleasant world look appealing.
